

The Nation's Most Powerful Employment Attorneys—Labor

Name/Title	Law Firm	City	Law School	Years in Practice	Practice Specialty
M.J. Asensio Partner; National Leader, Labor Relations Team	Baker Hostetler	Columbus, Ohio	Indiana University	26	Employment and labor relations
Marshall B. Babson Partner	Seyfarth Shaw	New York	Columbia	35	Practice before the NLRB, collective bargaining, arbitration, labor counsel in mergers and acquisitions, and employment litigation
L. Robert Batterman Partner	Proskauer	New York	New York University	45	Collective bargaining and labor-management relations, and counseling
Louis P. DiLorenzo Managing Partner, New York and Garden City offices	Bond Schoeneck & King	New York	University at Buffalo	35	Labor-relations counseling and strategy, negotiations, arbitration, labor and employment litigation, and risk-management training
Howard L. Ganz Co-Head, Sports Law Group	Proskauer	New York	Columbia	45	Labor counsel to sports leagues, including the NBA, and employment litigation
Angelo J. Genova Co-Founder and Partner	Genova, Burns & Giantomasi	Newark, N.J.	Rutgers	32	Traditional labor law and collective bargaining, employment litigation defense and counseling
W. Melvin Haas III Partner	Constangy	Macon, Ga.	University of Alabama	40	Employment and labor relations, preventive counseling, union elections, contract negotiations and arbitrations
Mark A. Hutcheson Firmwide Chair	Davis Wright Tremaine	Seattle	University of Washington	44	Strategic labor planning, union-organizing campaigns, collective bargaining and strike prevention counseling
Richard E. Jaudes Partner	Thompson Coburn	St. Louis	St. Louis University	42	Union issues, including elections, collective bargaining, arbitrations and strikes
Ronald M. Johnson Partner	Jones Day	Washington	University of Kansas	34	Federal litigation and agency proceedings, including the Surface Transportation Board, DOT, OSHA and the NLRB
F. Curt Kirschner Jr. Partner	Jones Day	San Francisco	University of Michigan	26	Strategic labor relations and employment advice
Jay P. Krupin Chair, Labor and Employment Practice	EpsteinBeckerGreen	Washington	St. Louis University	33	Management-labor relations, NLRB cases and collective bargaining, especially for hospitality and healthcare industries
Richard F. Liebman Founding Partner	Barran Liebman	Portland, Ore.	UC Berkeley	38	Employment and labor relations, including EEO and NLRB
Thomas Y. Mandler Capital Partner	Hinshaw	Chicago	University of Illinois	40	Traditional labor-law matters and other employment-law issues
Steve McCown Shareholder	Littler	Dallas	Southern Methodist University	36	Complex employment litigation and proceedings under OSHA
Gary C. Moss Partner	Jackson Lewis	Las Vegas	University of Iowa	42	Union avoidance, cases before the NLRB, union-organizing campaigns, collective bargaining and arbitration
Daniel L. Nash Partner	Akin Gump	Washington	UC Hastings	27	Complex labor and employment litigation and strategic counseling
Theodore R. Opperwall Member	Kienbaum Opperwall Hardy & Pelton	Birmingham, Mich.	University of Michigan	32	Labor arbitrations, NLRB proceedings, union avoidance, collective bargaining, injunctions, noncompetes and WARN
Bernard M. Plum Co-Head, Labor Management Relations Group	Proskauer	New York	Columbia	32	Collective bargaining, arbitration and strategic planning in a variety of industries, including newspapers, arts and utilities
Robert Siegel Partner	O'Melveny	Los Angeles	University of Michigan	37	Labor negotiations, arbitrations and litigation under the Railway Labor Act and other laws